

Confidence & Control with your horse

Saturday, April 9, 2011
9:30 AM to 3:30 PM
Paradise, CA

Learn how to have a more cooperative and respectful relationship with your horse on the ground—and then incorporate new skills into your riding that will give you greater control and confidence while you're in the saddle.

SCHEDULE

- 9:30 to 12:00 Gain respect, leadership, and softness while on the ground
- 12:00 to 1:00 Lunch break. Bring your own lunch, or PHA will have burgers and hotdogs for sale
- 1:00 to 3:30 Riding for confidence, control, and suppleness

COSTS

- Riders (limited to 8) - $100.00
Auditors (unlimited) - $10.00

LOCATION

At the arena of the Paradise Horsemen's Association
Directions: From Chico, CA go east up the Skyway to Paradise. Turn right on Pearson Rd. Continue to Clark Rd. Turn left on Clark Rd. and continue about 1 mile past Wagstaff Rd. Watch closely for your next left turn onto Forest Service Rd. towards the fire station. Go 150 yards and turn right just before the fire station onto Moore Rd. Go about 75 yds and turn left into the dog park and the PHA arena through the white steel pipe gate. Call 530-514-9393 if you get lost.

Call Jeff at 530.514.9393
Visit www.JeffCrawfordHorsemanship.com